

Maple Cross Primary School

"A very cohesive and reflective team who work tirelessly to improve the learning opportunities for their children.

The EY Leader has been inspirational in driving forward the Early Years and enabling all practitioners to be part of a cohesive and dedicated team.

The inviting environment reflects the individual needs and learning of each unique child, promoting achievement and outcomes for all children."